Within the ACADEMICS TAB you will find information on multiple course from the Distributed Leader Course (DLC) to the Master Leader Course (MLC).

Distributed Leader Course

"Sustaining the Operational and Institutional Domains"

The intent of DLC is to help the operational and institutional domains and so combines the continuous growth. DLC will ensure learning is continuous and evolving, not static and linear. DLC is required to ensure that all units throughout the career are first a closely linked and connected with the operational and institutional domains. DLC sets the conditions for continuous growth both as a leader and as a unit leader. DLC builds knowledge and skills through a shared structure of learning experiences and by adjusting of formal education and experiential learning.

Basic Leader Course

Scope

The Basic Leader Course prepares corporals and specialists to execute the duties of a team leader who assumes responsibility to employ comprehensive Soldier fitness elements for self and subordinates, promotes readiness for all contingencies including teamwork and collaboration by applying training management principles, thinks critically through effective leadership and counseling situations with total ownership of decisions, takes accountability for character development in self and subordinates, and confidently communicates time sensitive information through the chain of command.

Master Leader Course

Mission

The course is designed to challenge and educate selected Sergeants First Class in the areas of professional writing, communication skills, public speaking, critical thinking, organizational and command leadership, management skills, joint and operational level of war fighting, discipline, readiness, health and administrative requirements. In addition, students will be exposed to topics like National Security, Joint Interoperability and Multinational (JIM) and Strategic Thinking.

Within the ACADEMICS TAB you will find information for multiple course from the Distributed Leader Course (DLC) to the ALC/SLC NCO C3.

Under the DLC section you will find information of the overall intent of DLC as well as a brief synopsis of each DLC level.

DLC I

This course prepares the Corporal/Specialist to improve basic communication skills to message ideas and thoughts clearly; recognize the need for strong character and values; demonstrate tactical and technical competence in leading teams; and take initiative to become a lifelong learner by exploring interests and executing measures to pursue civilian education. DLC I is a prerequisite for the Basic Leader Course (BLC).

DLC IV

This course prepares the Sergeant First Class to lead at the unit and organizational level by developing the Leader Core Competencies (LCC) and attributes associated with the Leader Requirements Model. Learners will develop the skills necessary to ensure the unit is ready, trained, proficient, disciplined, and motivated. In addition, the course will prepare the learner for unit-level administrative and staff roles to ensure successful operations. DLC IV is a prerequisite for the Master Leader Course.

DLC II

This course prepares the Sergeant to react to cultural dynamics in the Joint, Interagency, Intergovernmental, and Multinational (JIIM) environment; develop self and subordinates to use sound and ethical judgement; be an agile and a multi-skilled leader in the operating environment when information is ambiguous and uncertain; and be accountable with moral and ethical character when managing programs; and take initiative to become a lifelong learner by exploring interests and executing measures to pursue civilian education. DLC II is a prerequisite for the Advanced Leader Course (ALC).

DLC V

This course prepares the Master Sergeant to lead at the unit, organizational, and operational level. It is designed to close the gap between strategic and tactical planning. Learners analyze and apply knowledge which will assist them in carrying out policies and standards on the performance, training, appearance, and conduct of enlisted personnel. The course further develops the Leader Core Competencies (LCC) and attributes associated with the Leader Requirements Model resulting in senior leaders who are ready to advise and initiate recommendations pertaining to the local NCO support channel. DLC V is a prerequisite for the Sergeants Major Course (SMC).

DLC III

This course prepares the Staff Sergeant by providing an opportunity to improve as a leader, a professional, and as an individual in the human dimension. The course develops the leadership skills needed to lead a platoon size element and to make quick, accurate decisions that are in the best interest of the mission and Soldiers. DLC III is a prerequisite for the Senior Leader Course (SLC).

DLC VI

This course educates senior 6C/AS and 7C/TS to perform senior-level duties at the nominative level positions throughout today's operational environment (OE). This course provides the Army with self-aware, adaptive leaders of character and competence with the skills to shape and overcome the fiction created by uncertainty and operate in an operational environment. DLC VI is a prerequisite for the Nominative Leader Course (NLC).
